IN FLANDERS FIELDS

John McCrae

In Flanders Fields, the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky,
The larks still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you, from falling hands, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die,
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

A GOLD STAR FATHER

She's a Gold Star mother,
We say it with awe;
As I pondered it over it seemed
That I saw
Not just a mother but a father too,
Who had given his son for me and you.
It seemed as I watched him,
He gazed into space,
With a look of anguish and bewilderment
Upon his dear rugged face.
And as I saw the faraway look of his eye,
A lump came into my throat
And I wanted to cry.
What plans he had made,
For this boy of his own;
Far back on that anxious morning
As he paced up and down alone.
And when he was told "It's a boy"
How he smiled
With what pride and joy
He told the birth of his child.
Sacrifices were made by both,
As the boy grew up with the years;
College planning was made
Without any fears.
Then December 7th a deed so bold
That instantly swept the world
Into anger and action untold.
All his plans seemed to fall,
As his boy joined up with the rest,
But he brushed them aside
A proud father threw out his chest.

How many times I have seen him await,
With an anxious look
The mailman at the gate.
When the letters grew farther
And farther between;
Mother and father grew closer
As on each other to lean.
On that day when he accepted
That message, now so well known;
"Killed in Action" he knew then
His boy would never be coming home
I have watched him since,
When he thinks he's alone;
And he picks up the picture
As healing tears come.
Mothers are made of the best
God ever gave to us;
With breaking hearts they carry on
With steadfast faith and trust,
But won't you pray for the father
Who seems so alone?
May he receive a gold star,
In his heavenly home.
Each day with a gentle pat on the back
Let him know you understand;
That he may know you appreciate
His sacrifice to our land.
And so, I say all honor
To both father and mother,
For in giving a son
They have given a part of each other.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF ROY BIRCH By Mrs. Myrtle Ashmore

There is a part of you that we shall keep
When time has softly hidden you from sight,
When we forget to wonder or to weep
That you have crossed the boundary of night;
Though the grave candor of your searching gaze
Elude us, and the magic of your voice
Return no more to gladden somber days,
We shall discover reason to rejoice.

There is a memory that will not fade
Though fugitive the years forever flee,
A glowing word you whispered unafraid
That time can never snatch away from me.
There is a part of you as frail as breath
Our heart shall proudly keep, even from Death.

GETTING READY TO RAISE THE FLAG

"THE MARTYR"

I am one of the fellows who made the world safe for Democracy. What a crazy thing that was. I fought and I fought but I had to go anyway. I was called in Class A. The next time I want to be in Class B. Be here when they go, and be here when they come back.

The day I went to camp I guess they didn't think I'd live long. The first fellow I saw wrote on my card "Flying Corps." I went a little further and some fellow said, "Look what the wind blew in." I said, "Wind nothing, the draft did it." On the second morning they put these clothes on me. What an outfit! As soon as you're in it you think you can fight anybody. They have two sizes. Too small and too big. The pants are so tight I can't sit down. The shoes are so big I turned around three times and they didn't move. And what a rain coat they gave me. It strained the rain. I passed an officer all dressed up with a funny belt and all that stuff. He said, calling after me, "Didn't you notice my uniform when you passed?" I said, "Yes. What are you kicking about, look what they gave me."

Oh, it was nice! Five below one morning they called us out for underwear inspection. You talk about scenery - red flannels, BVD's, all kinds, and told me to stand up. I said, "I am up, sir, this underwear just makes you think I'm sitting down." He got so mad he put me out digging a ditch. A little while later he passed me and said, "Don't throw that dirt up here." I said, "Where am I going to put it?" He said, "Dig another hole and put it there."

Three days later we sailed for France. Marching down the pier I had more bad luck. I had a Sergeant who stuttered and it took him so long to say, "Halt" that 27 of us marched overboard. They pulled us out and lined us up on the pier and the Captain came by and said, "Fall in!" I said, "I have been in, Sir."

I was on the boat 12 days, nothing going down and everything coming up. Leaned over the railing all the time. In the middle of one of my best leans the Captain rushed up to me and said, "What company are you in?" I said, "I'm all by myself." Talk about dumb people. I said to one of the fellows, "I guess we dropped the anchor." He replied, "I knew we would lose it, it's been hanging out ever since we left New York."

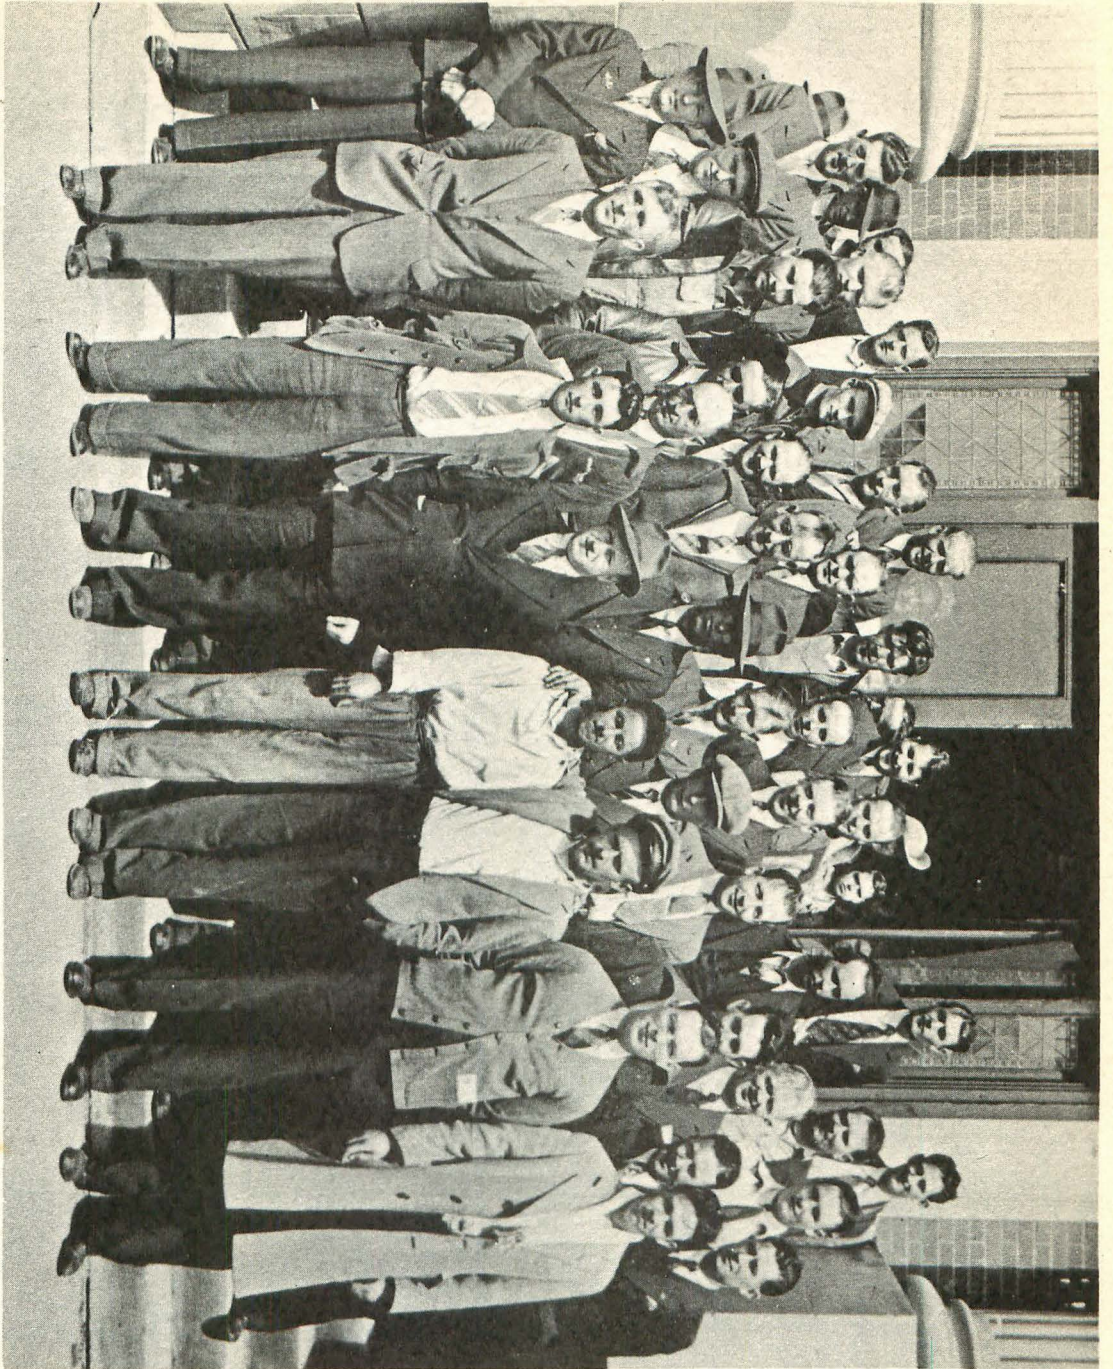

Well, we landed in France, we were immediately sent to the trenches. After three nights in the trenches, the cannons started to roar and the shells started to burst. I was shaking with patriotism. I tried to hide behind a tree but there weren't enough for the officers. The captain came around and said, "Five o'clock we go over the top." I said, "Captain, I'd like to have a word with you." He said, "Well, what is it?" I said, "Captain, I'd like to have a furlough." He said, "Haven't you any red blood in you?" I said, "Yes, but I don't want to see it."

Five o'clock we went over the top. 10,000 Austrians came at us. The way they looked at me you'd think I was the one who started the war. Our Captain yelled, "Fire at will." But I didn't know any of their names. I guess the fellow behind me thought I was Will. He fired his gun and shot me in the excitement.

Somewhere on a battlefield the fighter plane bearing the name of Dickey County, North Dakota has joined in sweeps against the enemy. The fighter plane was bought last February by the bond purchasers of Dickey County, who were asked to subscribe for bonds to the amount of $75,000, price of a fighter. They met and passed the quota by 10 per cent. The plane that bears the name of Dickey County is a North American P-51, known as a Mustang.

One of the nine counties in North Dakota to boast a state-supported institution of higher learning, Dickey County is fortunate in having the State Normal and Industrial College located within its borders. The N-I is nationally recognized as one of the finest industrial education colleges in the country and also serves the southeastern part of the state through normal, commercial, junior college and farm machinery departments.

Now composed of nine permanent buildings on an attractively landscaped campus, the college proposed to expand during the next few years with a new industrial arts building and a men's dormitory. Housing for Veterans consists of 36 trailers for married men and two barracks buildings for single veterans. During the farm machinery course other housing is made available for veterans attending the winter quarter.

Social activities at the college center around the "Dustie Den," a grill and soda fountain built last year. It contains seating room for about 30 students, as well as the college bookstore. Homecoming is the biggest single activity on the campus, traditionally a "Roundup" of former students. Dacotah Hall, the home of women students during their college years, has been made into one of the most attractive homes of its kind, with each room individually decorated.
